Minutes: The November 2016 minutes were accepted and approved.

New Business: President Peter Procko wished us all Happy Holidays and expressed his appreciation to the members and residents of the community for their efforts and great work. The NRZ had another successful and busy year working for the good of the community.

By Laws: Sofee and Nancy will review to see if any changes are necessary.

Old Business:

Greeneville Appreciation Dinner: The dinner was a success. Food was great. A very rewarding event. Discussion about the possibility of incorporating a scholarship award into this event. More to come as we investigate the application process.

Greeneville Polling Place: The NRZ would like to invite city council members and Senator Cathy Osten to the February 2017 meeting of the NRZ to discuss this possibility.

Spirit of Greeneville Day: 2017 date to be determined at the next meeting.

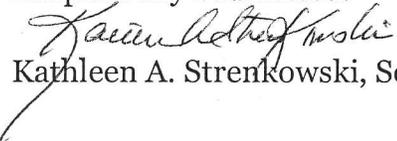

Mural: Dedication day to be determined. May try to make this part of clean up week in April.

Paint Party: Paint party to be held December 17, 2016 at the Greeneville Fire House.

Little Free Library: Peter Obuchowski from Xuare LLC has kindly offered to pay the $43.00 registration fee so that the Little Free Library in Greeneville is on the world map.

Meeting adjourned at 7:05 p.m.. Next meeting January 4, 2017 at the Greeneville Fire Station at 6:00 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted:

Kathleen A. Strenkowski, Secretary
