61 East Town Street

Short description of the work:

The porch in the front of the house has rotted to the point where reconstruction was necessary.

The reconstruction will be wood, with a cap on the corner pieces that matches the pre-existing fence cap.

The new structure will be painted the same color as the pre-existing trim already on the house and will be the same as the previous porch railing.

Work is still in progress so this picture is not the final look but merely the work in progress.

Thank you,

Kylene Thompson
